Lauren Weidner is a trial attorney who has focused her 26 year career on defending litigants in both simple and complex matters and obtaining outstanding trial results. Lauren has tried to jury verdict more than 10 civil jury cases, and has tried 30 arbitrations to award. She is experienced in defense of product liability, professional malpractice, premise liability, motor vehicle negligence and construction defect matters. She has represented product manufacturers, national retail chains, national restaurant chains, individuals and large general contracting firms. Lauren left a firm with multiple California offices, where she was a partner, in order to be able to have more focus on personal service to clients.

Lauren helps clients navigate litigation with confidence and efficiency. She achieves the best possible outcomes and is fully prepared to see every matter to trial. She has handled hundreds of matters over the course of her career, and has achieved results that have often “beat” her clients' statutory offers to compromise in her numerous Superior Court (Unlimited Jurisdiction) jury trials.

Lauren is a 25 year Navy spouse and has a strong commitment to the US Military. She has served for the last three years as a board member of the San Diego Supply Corps Association Executive Board. She also volunteers as a Court Appointed Special Advocate for foster youth in San Diego County.

Lauren has been earned a Martindale-Hubbell AV® rating. She is admitted to the Northern District of California, Southern District of California, Central District of California and all California state courts. She has served as an arbitrator for the San Diego County Superior Courts.
